第6問 次の文章を読んで、あとの問い（問1～5）の答えとして（ ）
に入る1語をそれぞれ本文中から抜き出して答えなさい。

McDonald's is the world's largest fast-food restaurant. It has about 38,000 stores in 120 countries and *territories around the world. It is famous for its hamburgers, and everyone knows McDonald's. However, it is not well known that two young men started the business. They were brothers and their family name was "McDonald". The name of the fast-food restaurant came from their family name. 5

The McDonald brothers were born in a poor family in the United States. They first opened a *hot dog stand in California in 1937, near a local *racetrack. Their business was not successful because there were not many customers after the race season ended. So they decided to move to a bigger city to start their new business, a hamburger restaurant. The new restaurant was a great success. 10

There were some reasons why McDonald brothers were able to succeed. First, there were a lot of working people near their restaurant. Second, the taste of hamburger was very good. And their hamburger was cheap. This was the beginning of their success in their business. 15

In Japan, the first McDonald's opened in Tokyo in 1971, one year later, the second one in Kyoto. In 1976, there were more than 100 McDonald's in Japan. The price of their hamburger was 80 yen at that time which was a little expensive. However, McDonald's soon became very popular. 20

Food in fast-food restaurants is delicious, and many children like it. However, some people say it is not healthy, because fast food has a lot of sugar and *fat. If you eat too much fast food, you may get sick. When you want to eat fast food, you should think if you have visited fast-food restaurant too often or not.
