David: Hi John! How are you?

John: Oh, hi David. How is it going?

David: So, have you thought about what we're going to do on our next spring vacation?

John: Not yet. There are so many things that I want to do!

David: Hey, I've been thinking. We should go on a vacation to a foreign country. What do you think?

John: That sounds wonderful! I totally agree with you. But, umm... which country should we go to? There are so many *options out there.

David: How about visiting Japan? Japan has that perfect mix of *modern technology, and beautiful cultures. We can enjoy shopping in big cities like Tokyo, or visit old temples in Nara. We can also try delicious food such as sushi and ramen!

John: Japan, huh? I really love your idea! But you know what? I've always had a dream of going to Italy. Just imagine walking through the unique streets, enjoying delicious pasta and *gelato, and visiting the historical *Colosseum. Also, we can see a lot of art there!

David: Italy! That's a fantastic choice! The thought of eating pizza and pasta in Italy is making me hungry already. Plus, all those beautiful cities like Rome and Venice must be amazing to see!

John: I believe so. Hmm, Japan or Italy. They both have beautiful cultures, and good food. I can't choose!

David: Well, *whichever foreign country we choose to visit, I'm sure it will be a great *adventure, with new experiences and *unforgettable memories!

第6問

次の英文を読んで、あとの問い（問 1～5）について最も適切なものを、それぞれ 1～4 の中から 1 つ選び番号で答えなさい。

The Okinawa Newspaper in Education, *NIE Practical Forum was held from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. September 8, 2023. It was held at Konan High School.

The study topics of the year for first-year students at Konan High School were: 1. Understanding oneself and others. 2. About social change.

The students chose a topic that they were interested in the newspaper and then collected articles about it. They worked on it from the middle of the first term to summer vacation. After that, they made a presentation with those and their comments. Those articles were about sports, culture, history, fashion, and SDGs. All students gave presentations at the NIE Practical Forum. One student presented about the FIBA Basketball World Cup held for the first time in Okinawa City. He introduced it with the articles and how local people felt about the big event because he was originally from the city. Another student presented the efforts of each city and town regarding child *poverty in Okinawa Prefecture. 5

How about you? How often do you read newspapers? In the past, people mostly learned about new information and news through television, radio, and newspapers, but now you can easily find news videos and listen to the radio on your smartphone. As a result, newspapers are not so popular now. However, there are many good things about newspapers. Newspapers have general, *economic, international, educational, and local information and other interesting stories. You do not have to read all the newspaper; you can start reading any page of the newspaper. Find an article that interests you and form your own opinion about it. Then, you can decide to study other things on your own little by little. By learning and understanding much from the newspaper, you will grow into a richer person. Start today by finding articles and pages in the newspaper that interest you. 15 20 25
